

January 25, 1911.

E. Trenhaft, Esq.,

Phoenix, Ariz.

Dear Sir:-

Yours of the 20th inst., received.

In case of Standard Oil Co., et al., Appellants, v. The United States, No. 398, Oct. Term, 1910, the argument was begun on the 11th inst., and concluded on the 17th inst., and the case is now before the Court for decision.

In the Tobacco Co. Case, Nos. 118 and 119, Oct. Term, 1910, the argument was begun on the 6th inst., and concluded on the 12th inst., and the case is now before the Court for decision.

I cannot furnish you copies of the papers in these cases as my supply is only sufficient for the use of the Court.

Yours truly,

James McKenney
Clerk, Supreme Court, C.S.

per

M.M.