McKesson & Robbins, Inc.
Investigation

Report on Investigation

Commission on Expert Witnesses

Securities and Exchange Commission
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
before the
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

in the matter of
McKesson & Robbins, Inc.

*

Testimony of expert witnesses
September 1939

&

Report on investigation
December 1940
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
BEFORE THE
SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
IN THE MATTER OF
MCKESSON & ROBBINS, INC.

Pursuant to Section 21(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

* *

Report on Investigation

UNITED STATES
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE
WASHINGTON : 1940

For sale by the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C. - - - - - - Price 60 cents

30049
COMMISSIONERS

Jerome N. Frank, Chairman
Robert E. Healy
Edward C. Eicher
Leon Henderson
Sumner T. Pike
Francis P. Brasso, Secretary

George C. Mathews
Resigned April 15, 1940
William O. Douglas
Resigned April 16, 1939
FOREWORD

This is a report of the Securities and Exchange Commission based upon the Commission's order of December 29, 1938 which is reproduced herein as Appendix C. Public hearings held thereunder began on January 5, 1939 and ended on April 25, 1939, and were conducted for the Commission by Irving J. Galpeer of the New York Regional Office and William W. Wernitz, Chief Accountant, before Adrian C. Humphreys, Trial Examiner.

The following counsel represented witnesses in these proceedings and were afforded an opportunity to examine all witnesses called by the Commission as well as to call their own witnesses:

Cravath, de Gersdorff, Swaine & Wood, by A. I. Henderson, Samuel B. Stewart, Jr., and Robert D. Blasier, for Price, Waterhouse & Co.;
Hodges, Reavis, Pantaleoni & Downey, by C. Frank Reavis, Francis Downey, and Martin D. Jacobs, for Joseph L. Bedsole, George V. Doerr, Henry D. Faxon, Charles F. Michaels, William J. Murray, Jr., and Julian F. Thompson;
Rand & French, by Robert C. Rand, for John H. McGloon;
Sullivan & Cromwell, by Edward H. Green and R. L. Lingelbach, for Wilbur L. Cummings, Richard G. Pettingill, and Sidney J. Weinberg; and

Copies of the draft of this report were submitted to Price, Waterhouse & Co. and their counsel, and their criticism and brief thereon were considered by the Commission before issuing this report. In this, as well as in the Commission's supervision of the preparation of this report, the present Commissioners had the assistance of Commissioner Mathews whose resignation did not take effect until practically all of the substantive work on the report had been completed.

The draft of this report was prepared for the Commission under the active direction of the Chief Accountant, William W. Wernitz, by Andrew Barr, Research Accountant, and Irving J. Galpeer, Senior Attorney. Important assistance was rendered by Earle C. King, Assistant Chief Accountant; Robert F. Graham, Research Accountant; Richard J. Cornell, Accountant-Investigator; and Henry G. Fischer, of the Legal Division.

The investigation pursuant to the Commission's order of December 6, 1938, which resulted in securing the criminal indictments against the Musica brothers referred to in the report and which led up to and furnished valuable information for the auditing investigation reported in this volume, was conducted under the active direction of James J. Caffrey, Regional Administrator in charge of our New York office, and Robert E. Kline, Jr., Assistant General Counsel, by H. J. Dowd, former Chief Accountant-Investigator, and Irving J. Galpeer, Senior Attorney. Important parts of this investigation were carried out and assistance in the auditing hearings was rendered by numerous members of the New York Regional Office, among whom, principally, were John H. Kelly, Assistant General Counsel; Richard J. Cornell, Frederic H. Curran, James E. Cochran, Charles C. Ferrall, and John Shaw of the Investigation Division; and Sydney I. Harris, E. Allen MacDuffie, William J. Cogan, John Knox, and Philip Wagner of the Legal Division.
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Section I

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Summary of Findings and Conclusions</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. Summary of Principal Facts</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Summary of Conclusions as to Individual Auditing Procedures</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Appointment and Responsibility of Auditors; Determination of the Scope of the Engagement</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Organization and Training of Staff</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Investigation of New Clients</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Review of the Client's System of Internal Check and Control</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Cash</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Accounts Receivable</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. Intercompany Accounts</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. Inventories</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9. Other Balance Sheet Accounts</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10. Profit and Loss Accounts</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11. The Wholesale Houses</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12. Review Procedure</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13. The Certificate</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14. Circumstances Available for the Auditors' Observation in the Procedures and Records of the Girard-McKesson Companies Which Might Have Led to the Discovery of the Fraud</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Conclusion</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Section II

THE DISCLOSURE OF THE FRAUD | 13 |

Section III

THE FICTITIOUS CRUDE DRUG BUSINESS | 23 |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Brief Corporate History</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. Girard &amp; Co., Inc.</td>
<td>24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. McKesson &amp; Robbins, Incorporated (Connecticut)</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. McKesson &amp; Robbins, Limited (Canada)</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. McKesson &amp; Robbins, Incorporated (Maryland)</td>
<td>31</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The Amount and Location of the Inflation in Assets, Sales, and Gross Profits</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. The Office at Bridgeport</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Smith and Manning</td>
<td>49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Purchases of Foreign Crude Drugs by the Connecticut Division at the Time of the 1937 Audit, and How They Were Handle</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
THE FICTITIOUS CRUDE DRUG BUSINESS—Continued.

C. The Manner in Which the Fictitious Accounts Were Handled—Con.
4. Sales of Foreign Crude Drugs by the Connecticut Division at the Time of the 1937 Audit, and How They Were Handled ................................................................. 77

5. Purchases and Sales of Foreign Crude Drugs by the Canadian Company at the Time of the 1937 Audit, and How They Were Handled ................................................................. 93

6. Periodic Accounting in Connection with the Foreign Crude Drug Transactions at the Time of the 1937 Audit ................................................................. 99
   a. Monthly Statements from Manning & Company .............................................. 99
   b. Monthly Statements for Guaranty and Service Charges .............................. 99
   c. Semi-Annual Requests for Confirmations of Inventories ............................. 104
   d. Monthly Reports to Management .................................................................. 107

7. The Manner in Which the Foreign Crude Drug Transactions Were Handled Prior to 1935 ................................................................. 108

8. The Manner in Which the Foreign Crude Drug Transactions Were Handled Prior to 1931 ...................................................................................... 113

D. The Manner in Which the Outside Documents on the Fictitious Transactions Were Prepared ................................................................. 117

E. Control Exercised by Directors over the Foreign Crude Drug Business ................................. 119

Section IV

DESCRIPTION OF THE AUDIT CONDUCTED BY PRICE, WATERHOUSE & CO. .................................................................................................................... 135

A. Price, Waterhouse & Co. .................................................................................... 135
   1. The Firm .............................................................................................................. 135
   2. The Origin and Terms of the Engagement ...................................................... 145
      a. Letters of Engagement .................................................................................. 145
         (1) Girard & Co., Inc. ..................................................................................... 145
         (2) Merger of Girard & Co., Inc. and McKesson & Robbins, Incorporated (New York) .......................................................................................... 148
         (3) McKesson & Robbins, Incorporated (Connecticut) .................................. 149
         (4) McKesson & Robbins, Incorporated (Maryland) and Subsidiaries .......... 150
      b. Audit Reports .................................................................................................... 153
      c. General ............................................................................................................ 154

3. Assignments of Price, Waterhouse & Co. Staff to the Engagement ..................... 157

B. Beginning the Examination ............................................................................. 164
C. Internal Check and Control ............................................................................. 173
D. Cash in Banks and on Hand ............................................................................. 192
E. Accounts Receivable .......................................................................................... 215
F. Intercompany Accounts ..................................................................................... 241
G. Inventories .......................................................................................................... 250
H. Other Balance Sheet Accounts ......................................................................... 291
   1. Unexpired Insurance ......................................................................................... 291
   2. Fixed Assets ..................................................................................................... 291
TABLE OF CONTENTS

DESCRIPTION OF THE AUDIT CONDUCTED BY PRICE, WATERHOUSE & CO—Continued.

H. Other Balance Sheet Accounts—Continued.
   3. Liabilities. .................................................. 293
      a. Accounts Payable ........................................ 293
      b. Acceptances Payable .................................... 297
      c. Taxes ...................................................... 298
      d. Contingent Liabilities .................................. 298

I. Profit and Loss Accounts. ..................................... 299
   1. Sales, Cost of Sales, and Gross Profit .................... 299
   2. Other Profit and Loss Accounts ............................ 310

J. The Wholesale Houses. ....................................... 315
   1. Number of Houses .......................................... 315
   2. Control of the Audit ...................................... 315
   3. Special Features of the Work in the Wholesale Houses .. 316
      a. Cash ....................................................... 316
      b. Accounts Receivable and Bad Debt Reserves .......... 316
      c. Inventories .............................................. 318
      d. Internal Check and Control ............................. 318
      e. Internal Audit—Traveling Auditors .................... 326

K. Review Procedure ............................................. 329
L. The Report and Certificate .................................... 332
M. The Fee ........................................................ 351
N. Price, Waterhouse & Co.'s Appraisal of Their Audit ....... 357

Section V

CONCLUSIONS AS TO THE PRICE, WATERHOUSE & CO. AUDIT OF McKESSON & ROBBINS, INCORPORATED, AND AS TO THE ADEQUACY OF THE SAFEGUARDS INHERING IN GENERALLY ACCEPTED AUDITING PRACTICES .................................... 361

A. Material for Judging Standards Prevailing During the Period of the Girard-McKesson Engagement ................................ 362
      1. Published Materials ...................................... 362
      2. Testimony of Expert Witnesses ........................... 363

B. Appointment of Auditors, Organization of Staff, and Beginning the Examination ................................................ 365
      1. Appointment and Responsibility of Auditors; Determination of the Scope of the Engagement .......................... 365
      2. Organization and Training of Staff ....................... 370
      3. Investigation of New Clients ............................. 377

C. Review of the Client's System of Internal Check and Control .. 378
   1. Examination of the System ................................ 379
      a. Inspection of the Plant ................................ 379
      b. Determination of Duties of Client's Personnel ....... 381
      c. Questionnaires .......................................... 381
   2. Appraisal of the System .................................... 383

D. Cash ............................................................ 386
   1. Adequacy of the Program ................................... 386
   2. Confirmation of Deposits .................................. 388
   3. Manning & Company ......................................... 388
   4. Conclusion ................................................. 392
CONCLUSIONS AS TO THE PRICE, ETC.—Continued.

E. Accounts Receivable
   1. The Audit Program in General ........................................... 392
   2. Character of the Accounts ............................................... 392
   3. Confirmation of Accounts ............................................... 393
   4. Reliance upon Credit Reports .......................................... 394

F. Intercompany Accounts ..................................................... 397

G. Inventories
   1. The Audit Program in General ........................................... 399
   2. Accuracy of Computations, Footings, and Recapitulations ........ 400
   3. Pricing ................................................................. 400
   4. Quantities, Quality, and Condition
      a. Tests Based on Records ............................................ 402
      b. Physical Tests .................................................. 404
   5. Ownership
      a. Merchandise on the Client’s Premises .......................... 411
      b. Merchandise Not on the Client’s Premises ................. 412

H. Other Balance Sheet Accounts ............................................ 413
   1. Unexpired Insurance .................................................... 413
   2. Fixed Assets .......................................................... 414
   3. Liabilities
      a. The Audit Program in General .................................... 415
      b. Accounts Payable ................................................. 415
      c. Tax Liabilities .................................................. 417
      d. Contingent Liabilities ......................................... 418

I. Profit and Loss Accounts .................................................. 419
   1. Sales, Cost of Sales, and Gross Profit ............................ 419
   2. Other Profit and Loss Accounts ..................................... 421

J. The Wholesale Houses ....................................................... 421

K. Review Procedure ............................................................ 424

L. The Report and Certificate ................................................ 428

M. The Fee ........................................................................... 436

N. Circumstances Available for the Auditors’ Observation in the Records and Procedures of Girard & Co., Inc., McKesson &
   Robbins, Limited (Canada), McKesson & Robbins, Incorporated
   (Connecticut), and McKesson & Robbins, Incorporated (Maryland-Connecticut Division) Which Might Have Led to the Discovery of the Fraud ....................................................... 438
   1. Internal Check and Control ............................................. 439
   2. Cash in Banks and on Hand .......................................... 440
   3. Foreign Crude Drug Receivables ..................................... 441
   4. Intercompany Accounts ............................................... 441
   5. Foreign Crude Drug Inventories ..................................... 441
   6. Other Balance Sheet Accounts ....................................... 443
   7. Profit and Loss Accounts ............................................. 443

O. Summary ........................................................................... 443
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Appendix A

Action Taken Since the McKesson & Robbins Disclosures With Respect to Auditing Procedures by Professional Accounting and Other Interested Organizations. ........................................... 447

Extensions of Auditing Procedure, Report of May 9, 1939, as Modified and Approved at the Annual Meeting, September 19, 1939, American Institute of Accountants, October 18, 1939. ......................... 455

Recommendations as to Corporate Procedures, An Extract from New York Stock Exchange—Report of Sub-Committee on Independent Audits and Audit Procedure of Committee on Stock List. ...................... 469

Appendix B

Comparison of Those Sections of the English Companies Act, 1929 Dealing with Appointment of Auditors and Horace B. Samuel's Suggested Amendments to Those Sections of That Act. ............................... 471

Appendix C

Order for Public Hearing In the Matter of McKesson & Robbins, Inc., December 29, 1938. ................................................................. 475

Appendix D

Index to Testimony of Witnesses .................................................. 477

Appendix E

Description of Exhibits Introduced in Evidence, Including an Index to Pages of Testimony at Which the Exhibits Were Introduced and to Pages of This Report at Which Reference is Made to Them. ......................... 481