

1979 President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service

The President's Award is the highest honor that the Federal Government can grant to a career employee in recognition of exceptional achievements that are of unusual benefit to the nation. It serves to give national recognition to individuals who exemplify to an exceptional degree, imagination, courage and high ability in carrying out the mission of the Government.

Stanley Sporkin

An exceptionally competent lawyer, with a distinguished career in Federal law enforcement, he has contributed immeasurably to the maintenance of investor confidence in the fairness and efficiency of the Nation's securities markets. He has demonstrated outstanding ability in a highly sensitive enforcement area, creating unique and effective techniques to prevent and correct violations of the Federal securities laws.

November 21, 1979